

Parent Educational Advocacy Training Center

Building Positive Futures for Virginia's Children

Parent Educational Advocacy Training Center in partnership with VCU's
Rehabilitation and Research Training Center present:

*Virginia's NEXT STEPS Transition Program 2009 for Families, Youth with Disabilities, and Professionals:
Building Effective Partnerships & Accessing Resources*

Six Webcasts on Transition

All scheduled for 2:00PM EST

- | | |
|----------|---|
| March 2 | From Segregated to Customized: The Shift to Personalized Employment with Laura Owens, E.D., Executive Director, APSE |
| March 16 | In Support of Supported Decision Making with Lisa Morgan, E.D., Executive Director, Icon Community Services |
| April 6 | Assistive Technology and Transition with Joey Wallace, Ph.D., E.D., New Well Foundation |
| April 20 | Opportunities through Career Tech Ed with Domenic Giandomenico, Director, ICW, US Chamber of Commerce |
| May 4 | Transition and the Arts: Taping into Creative Opportunities with Betty Siegal , Director of Accessibility, the John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts |
| May 18 | Student Voice: Transition to College with Liz Getzel, VCU/RRTC |

The series is free but you must register

To register, please visit: www.peatc.org or link to

http://www.peatc.org/newsmanager/news_article.cgi?sess=8ee7992460bb0064160079671f724c0a&news_id=66

*Supported by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education Grant # H235F070018
CEU, CRC & Parent Certificates available*