

MODEL TRANSITION PROGRAM

Whole Life Planning for Students and Families
Live, Learn, Work and Play

Jeff Kosialski, Trainer

The training will provide an overview of whole-life planning and what to consider when planning for the future beyond school. Participants will be provided with ideas for creating plans, identifying resources and asking for support.

Target Audience

Students, young people, parents and individuals interested in planning for the future and knowing more about whole life planning.

Course Key Ideas

The training will provide an overview of whole-life planning and what to consider when planning for the future beyond school.

Tuesday, April 7, 2009

at

The Radisson
125 Denison Pkwy East
Corning, New York

Please select the session you plan to attend and fax this registration form to the attention of: Denise Bates at 607-324-5893. Contact Diane Marshall at 607-215-2385 with questions. Space is limited so register early!

2:00 – 4:30pm

5:30 – 8:00pm

This training is offered through the UB MTP grant and there is no fee for participants.