Pre Registration Is Required for this workshop before November 3rd

This workshop will provide an overview of the topic of sexuality as it relates to individuals with disabilities and will present ideas on promoting good health and hygiene for teens.

This workshop will be for parents and teens ages 13 and up.

Presenters: Jean Tydings and Kathy McCarthy-Proulx

Jean Tydings is an Advocate and Coordinator of the Independent Parent Advocacy Network at The Advocacy Center. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Speech Pathology and has over thirty years experience in disability advocacy. Jean believes strongly in the importance of building the capacity of individuals with disabilities and their families to advocate for themselves. She enjoys the learning process working with individuals and groups.

Kathy McCarthy-Proulx works as an Advocate and Trainer for the Parent Training and Information Center at The Advocacy Center. In her role, she supports parents of children with disabilities as well as advocacy organizations across New York State. Kathy has worked at The Advocacy Center for twenty years. She has a Bachelor of Science in Social Work and she is the parent of three children. Her daughter, Kate, had multiple disabilities and complex medical needs. Kathy's experiences with her own children led her to become an advocate.
